

My Brother Sam is Dead

chapters 3 + 4

9/1/15

ESSENTIAL QUESTION:

In chapters 3 + 4, what changes in the way Tim sees the war? How do you know?

QUESTIONS:

ch. 3

What will Sam do now that he's home?

NOTES:

- Tim's town hasn't changed much because of the war. No armies, no cannons, no food shortages, just lots of talk of war.

- Tim waits months and months for a signal that Sam has returned home. Finally, in November, he gets it.

ch. 4

- Rebel soldiers hold Tim's parents at gunpoint + demand the gun (Brown Bess) from them.

- Father argues with the soldiers until one slashes his cheek with a sword.

- Tim runs to get Sam from Tim Warrups' teepee.

- Tim takes the gun from Sam while he's sleeping, but Sam wakes up + chases him.

SUMMARY:

Continue on back

QUESTIONS:

NOTES:

Ch. 4 (continued):

- Tim begs Sam to come help father. Sam resists at first, but reacts after Tim calls him a coward.
- When they return home, the Rebel Soldiers have left. Sam runs away again too.

SUMMARY: